NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES
WITHOUT LABOR.
THE AUTOMATIC
CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any Stove or Range, in any boiler, and the LOW PRICE of the article places it within the reach of every family.
This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.
The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles, from the finest laces to the bed-blanket. For Flannels it is invaluable, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.
The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric, thoroughly loosening and eradicating the dirt WITHOUT LABOR or friction.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.
Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be returned in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.
The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.
No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHER'S, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the State.

LIFE INSURANCE.

The Most Vigorous and the Most Liberal Insurance Company in the Country.

BROOKLYN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
141 Broadway, N. Y.

ASSETS OVER

CHRISTIAN W. BOUCK.....President.
ABRAM D. POLHEMUS.....Vice President.
WILLIAM M. COLE.....Secretary.
D. P. FACKLER.....Consulting Actuary.
DANIEL AYRES, M. D., LL.D.....Med. Examiner.

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guaranties a definite surrender-value to every Policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every Policy issued. Should any Policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the Policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid.

This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the MOST LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United States, are:

1st TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS ON TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over, without extra premium or special permit.

2d. A LOAN of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTORY PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. P. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The success which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.

LIFE INSURANCE.

ÆTNA
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

HON. E. A. BULKELEY, President,
AUSTIN DUNHAM, Vice "
T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.
H. W. StJOHN, Actuary.

SUMMARY OF BUSINESS FOR 1867

Total Assets, over	$10,000,000
Polices insured in '67,	15,951
Am't insured, nearly	$45,000,000
Policies Average "	3,000
Receipts for 1867,	5,129,447
Surplus for Dividends,	2,000,000

Dividend Fifty per cent.

Receipts for Interest Nearly Paid Its Losses.

It has $130 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

Its premium receipts at the present time are nearly HALF A MILLION DOLLARS per month and are rapidly increasing.

The growth of the Ætna has never been equaled by any other Company whatsoever, in Europe or America.

Particular attention is called to the fact that while its business is increasing unprecedentedly, its ratio of expenses is comparatively small.

ECONOMY of management, CARE in the selection of risks, promptness in the payment of death claims, and security in the investment of its immense Trust Funds, are rigidly adhered to, and have ever characterized this Company.

The ÆTNA issues all the favorite kinds of Polices at the most favorable rates.

The ÆTNA issued last year more Endowment Insurances than any other Company.

The ÆTNA'S ratio of expenses, or cost of new business is less than any other Company whatsoever, and less than two-thirds of the average.

The ÆTNA is as liberal in permits to travel, in all parts of the world, as a sound discretion will warrant, and is much more liberal than any other prominent Company.

ANNUAL INCOME over $6,000,000.

The only Company that has the Low Participating Non-forfeitable Term Insurance with privilege of renewal. Ex. of rate at age 30 $14 67, which is nearly 40 per cent. lower than any other leading Company. Also Non-forfeiting cash rates with dividends on contribution plan and payable at the end of the first year.

Description of Policies.

First—Whole Life Policies.
Second—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term, or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the rates published herewith, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue,

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made the dividends will be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON-FORFEITURE RULES.

No whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payment as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends, then accumulated, will purchase, taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

And Manager for Virginia, South of the James, and the State of North Carolina.

SOUTHERN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

PURELY A SOUTHERN INSTITUTION.

PRINCIPAL OFFICES:
Atlanta, Georgia; Memphis, Tennessee; Louisville, Kentucky.
CAPITAL STOCK, $228,500.
Nett Assets of the Company, July 1st, 1868, $230,942.06.

Insures lives, and promptly adjusts and pays losses. Its principal business is with Southern States, and to them it appeals for patronage. It has ample means to fully protect Policy holders and pay all losses.

The "Southern" combines the advantage of both note and cash system, stock and mutual—such as choose to pay cash may do so and secure a non-forfeitable policy and all the advantages of a Cash Company. The privilege of a permanent loan for one-third is granted to all who desire it.

It makes investments at home in good and reliable securities, thereby tending to make money more plenty in our midst, and to aid in developing the resources of our section, and to stop the annual drain of over Six Million dollars, which are being sent North for Life Insurance.

Its profits are equitably distributed among Policy holders and Stockholders.

In its organization are presented men of experience in Life Insurance and their aim will be to make the "Southern Life" the exponent of the business, enterprise and progress of the present day.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 21, 1869.

REPORT OF THE SENATE COMMITTEE UPON THE PENITENTIARY FRAUD.

This report develops Legislative negligence, corruption and fraud. The report of purchase for the Penitentiary site was made by the Superintendent of Public Works, Cebe Harris, on behalf of the Committee appointed by the Legislature to purchase the site. That Committee, through its Chairman, reported one tract of land. The Senate Committee contradicted them by reporting two. The Purchasing Committee report "on this place," the 8,000 acres, "is an abundance of granite, and a large quantity of granite immediately on the banks of the river which can be easily quarried, placed on boats, and carried by water within the walls of the Penitentiary. The Senate Committee say there is no granite on the land. "No one, (say the Committee) with whom they conversed, knew anything of granite on the land."

The land, according to the Purchasing Committee, is on Deep River. According to the Smelling Committee, as the Standard would call it, the land is ten miles from Deep River. The Purchasing Committee say, it is valuable for agricultural purposes, while the Investigating Committee say, it is valueless for farming purposes. Downing, Lassiter, and each member of the Committee who purchased, swore they had not been upon the 8,000 acre purchase. Cebe Harris, the Superintendent of Public Works, is the only member of the Committee who had seen it, and he has seen only a small portion of it. The Investigating Committee say, "there is no evidence that the State is owner of a quarry on it," meaning the 8,000 acre purchase. Now we ask the Committee, if they did not have the word of R. W. Lassiter, John A. Hyman, (colored,) Hugh Downing, (white,) Jas. H. Harris, (colored,) and J. H. Renfrow, that there was a "large quarry of granite" on the land? We ask the Committee if the Superintendent did not swear there was? And yet the Committee report no evidence of a quarry on the land! If the Committee will give us access to their papers, we should like to publish a portion of the evidence taken before them. We wish especially to see if the Superintendent of Public Works did swear there was a quarry, and yet, in the face of that solemn oath, the Committee say there is no evidence of a quarry before them.

THE HAPPY FAMILY.

Those of our readers, who have visited Barnum's Museum, and witnessed the "Happy Family"—a cage of reptiles, birds and animals,—will be struck with the contrast between the Happy Family at the Capitol, and the cage owned by P. T. Barnum. The good book says "how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity," &c.; but the wise man, whose inspired pen wrote these beautiful words, had never witnessed a meeting of carpet-baggers, scallawags, adventurers and negroes—all professing to belong to "Gideons Band," but holding as many different opinions, as there are colors in the rainbow, save the one idea of making money, or getting money, as we should have said—and this one idea, makes the clan a unit in sentiment. Vide Mr. French's motion to take certain monies to pay the per diem of members, thus taking the last drop of blood from the financial veins of Mr. Treasurer Jenkins. Outside of the money idea, harmony among the unterrified, is below par—confusion commands a premium, and the leading spirits are in the advance and "casting about" for a safe harbor, with their flag union down, a signal of distress. Cuffy Mayo, makes a prayer; sleepy Downing responds, amen! and the whole family resolve to hold a caucus, and consult for the common good of the "hands," in order to prevent a meeting.

The great "bone of contention," the tax bill, occupied the sitting of the first caucus. Revenue must be raised! The State is in debt, and "somebody" is blameable for the "fix" in which, the great Republican party finds itself. Angry words pass! The people won't stand heavy taxation—it will kill the party. Then, says Mr. French, tax dogs, for "dogs are a luxury!" Cuffy Mayo says tax cows—and many "hands" were of the same opinion—opposed to the "dog law."

Another caucus is held—and another—about two each week, and the cauldron is heated to a boiling pitch. Somebody rejoins—we don't know how true,—that oaths and imprications are passed and heaped upon the heads of the adventurers; and a bold threat is made of the formation of a third party to "root out" the carpet-baggers. Cuffy Mayo prays again, and the paper collar of Cebe, wilts. "How pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity, it is like the precious ointment that ran down Aaron's beard," &c.

WE HAVE received the proceedings of the Bertie Agricultural Society, and will endeavor to place them before our readers to-morrow.

The negro National Convention, now in session at Washington City, have determined to hold their next Convention in the City of Raleigh.

ONE DAY'S WORK OF THE "HANDS."

It will be seen from the Senate proceedings of yesterday, that Mr. Purdie's seat has been vacated, at this late hour of the Legislature, under the cover of the Howard Amendment. It is due to the six Republicans who voted against the expulsion, that their names should be known to the public—we therefore publish the vote.—Aside from the ratification of a few bills by the Chief of the "hands" in the Senate, and the introduction of a bill or two, this brilliant achievement—the expulsion of Purdie—constitutes the sum total of the work done by the "hands" in the Senate branch of the Legislature. Now, let's see what the cost of this heavy days work amounts to: Fifty men at $7 per day, is $350.00; three cords of wood, for warming the Senate Chamber, at $4, is $12—waste of stationery, at least $5—making the sum total, of $367.00.

P. S. In the above estimate, we have omitted the pay of the President of the Senate, and the door-keepers.

The "hands," in the House, consumed nine hundred and fifty dollars, four cords of wood and an indefinate amount of stationery, on the bill to consolidate the Atlantic and the North Carolina Railroad, and after a very desperate struggle, the bill passed its second reading. The overseer of the House, Joseph William, appeared to enjoy the zeal manifested by the "hands," to do their work on this special occasion.

SPECIAL ORDER.

Report of the Committee on Privileges and Elections, declaring Mr. Purdie, Senator from the 14th District, banned by the Constitutional amendment.

Mr. Moore, of Carteret, introduced a resolution declaring the seat of Mr. Purdie vacant.

Mr. Brogden said he desired to submit some of the reasons which compelled him to support the resolution. On personal grounds, he preferred that this cup should pass from him; but he could not forget that he had a public duty to perform. He would have been glad to have avoided this duty, but as it was to be decided, he should pursue the course which conscience and duty directed. This resolution, declares the seat of the Senator from the 14th District vacant, for the reason that he is banned by the Constitutional Amendment, and as the Senate is the judge of the eligibility of its own members, that is the question now under consideration, (he quoted the 3rd section of the 14th Article, in relation to who are banned, and Webster's definition of judicial, of aid and comfort, and of encouraged.)

Now, Sir, every lawyer is bound to admit that a Magistrate is a judicial officer. He holds Courts, imposes fines and penalties, and imposes taxes on the people. There cannot be the least shadow of doubt as to his being a judicial officer, and comes under the construction of the 14th Article. The report of the Committee says that Mr. Purdie was a Magistrate during the war, and was a member of the Legislature before the war. A member of the Legislature certainly comes under the construction of the 14th Article. This is a question of fact, and cannot be gainsayed by any one. The question admits of no doubt; that a man, a member of the Legislature before the war, and who held office during the war, comes under the construction of the 14th Article of the Constitution. And as to vacating the seat of a Senator, the seats of members of Parliament have been vacated, as well as divers persons holding high positions in the Government of the United States. Wm. Blount, a gentleman prominently connected with the early history of North Carolina, was impeached and expelled from the Senate of the United States. The celebrated John Wilkes was expelled from the House of Commons, and re-elected, owing to his great personal popularity, a third and fourth time, and yet he was not allowed to take his seat, and his opponent, who only received a small vote, was declared elected. He regretted that this case had to be met, but as it was a part of the duty imposed upon the Senate, it should be met according to their understanding, and in accordance with the Constitution of the United States. The case was too plain to even admit of argument on the other side. He regretted that it was so; he had great personal regard for the Senator, but could not let his personal feelings control his action in this case.

Mr. Graham said he believed that the minds of Senators were already made up in reference to this subject, and did not know that anything he might say would change them. The Senate after having once decided this question, after a thorough examination into all the facts, decided to go into another investigation. What was the causes or motives which prompted it he did not know. He felt it to be his duty as a Senator to give his reasons why he thought the Senator not banned:

"Four of the Committee have presented a report alleging that Mr. Purdie held the office of Magistrate before and during the war, was a member of the Legislature in 1858-'59, and, as such, took an oath to support the Constitution of the United States; never served in the army during the rebellion; never invested a dollar in Confederate bonds; was a private in the Home Guards, but never served unless compelled to do so. That portion of the Committee believe him to be banned by the Howard Amendment, and, therefore, not entitled to his seat. Not being aware of any evidence before the Committee of the above facts, but taking them to be true, these questions are presented to the Senate:

1st. Has Mr. Purdie engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States or given aid and comfort to the enemies thereof?

2d. Has the Senate a right to expel him, having once investigated his case, and sitting as a Judge upon his qualifications decided that he was not banned?

The word "engage" means to promise—to pledge oneself—to embark—to enter upon—to enlist. An insurrection is the rising up against the authority of the government; rebellion is resistance against the authority of the government with an intent to overthrow it—a violent resistance to lawful authority.

According to the opinion of Attorney General Stanbery, "an act to fix upon a person the offence of engaging in rebellion, must be an overt and voluntary act, done with the intent of aiding and furthering the common unlawful purpose. A person forced into the Rebel service by conscription, or under a paramount authority, which he could not safely disobey, and who would not have entered such service, if left to the free exercise of his own will cannot be held to be disqualified."

Again: "But officers who, during the rebellion, discharged official duties not incident to war, but only such duties as belonged to a state of peace, and were necessary to the preservation of order and the administration of law, are not to be considered as thereby engaging in rebellion or as disqualified."

Again: The words "giving aid and comfort to the enemies of the United States" are the same used in the constitutional definition of treason, and the enemies there meant must be taken to be foreign enemies."

Can we say that the acts of Mr. Purdie amount to an actual participation? And if we have a reasonable doubt, must not that doubt be resolved against the operation of the law and in favor of Mr. Purdie? Is not this the settled rule of construction in regard to penal and disabling statutes? In the opinion of Judge Underwood, in the case of Caesar Griffin, he says: "It may be observed that no one is even temporarily excluded, who had not actively engaged in the war against the United States, but, in addition to this, he must have held an office previously, which made him a leading and representative man and which required him to take a special oath to support the Constitution of the United States." Under the Reconstruction Acts, the party who desired to vote had to take an oath and clear himself of all disability. Under the Howard amendment Congress is required to enforce by appropriate legislation this article. But admitting that the Senate has the right to judge of the qualification of its members, has not that right been exercised by the Senate and was not its decision final? In my opinion an exclusion in this case is equivalent to expulsion without a case.

Admitting that he was a member of the Legislature in 1858-'59 and for the sake of argument that it is a judicial office. Did he engage in rebellion, after once deciding that he is not banned? Have you the right to try him again and reverse your decision? If you do you say sitting upon your solemn oaths that you have committed a great wrong. Again, we have no right to make ourselves the arbitrators in this matter. Until Congress makes the law giving us the power, will the government of the United States allow North Carolina to punish treason. Some say the amendment is not a punishment. He held that it was; and it was the opinion of Judge Chase, and when we attempt to punish men for treason we transcend our powers. These cases have been decided repeatedly. No Court but the Courts of the United States can punish a man for counterfeiting money. The Senator from Wayne alluded to the expulsion from the English Parliament, of Mr. Wilkes. If the Senator is familiar with history he will recollect that it created a howl of indignation throughout the borders of England, and such an experiment has not been repeated since. The people should say who shall be their representatives.

Mr. Blythe followed in support of the resolution.

Messrs. Osborne and Robbins opposed the resolution. [We regret that we have not space to publish their remarks in full.]

Mr. Moore, of Carteret, called the previous question, which was sustained, and the resolution was adopted.

AYES.—Messrs. Barrow, Bellamy, Brogden, Burns, Blythe, Colgrove, Cook, Davis, Eaves, Etheridge, Forkner, Galloway, colored, Hayes, Harrington, Hyman, colored, Jones, of Wake, Lassiter, Martindale, Moore, of Carteret, Moore, of Yancey, Smith, and St phens—22.

NAYS.—Messrs. Barnes, Beall, Graham, Lindsay, Love, Mann, Melchor, Osborne, Rich, Robbins, Welker, Wynne, Winstead, and Wilson—14.

Mr. Beall offered the following explanation of his vote: First, he did not believe that the term "office" applied to a seat in the Legislature: Second, he did not believe that Mr. Purdie had "engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States". Third, it was doubtful, to say the least, whether "Article Fourteenth" was a part of the Constitution considering the arbitrary manner in which it was forced upon the country after several Western States had withdrawn their assent; and several Southern States had given their assent under compulsion, and lastly a liberal construction of all laws imposing penalties and disabilities for political opinions and acts is the wisest policy of an enlightened government. For these reasons he voted no.

Mr. Love offered the following explanation of his vote:

This Senate sits here as a State Court.—A State Court has no right to pass upon a purely Federal question. This is a question of that character. I do not believe the Senator from Bladen, ever voluntarily engaged in the rebellion. I do not believe he ever was a "judicial or executive office of the State."

Messrs. Welker and Lindsay, could not see any additional fact brought out in the report of the Committee; they were obliged to retain their former opinions, that the Senator is not banned, consequently they voted against the resolution.

Mr. Moore, of Carteret, introduced a resolution vacating the seat of Jas. A. Oates, Senator elect from the 19th Senatorial District.

The President decided the resolution out of order.

On motion, the Senate adjourned until to-morrow at 11 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WEDNESDAY, Jan. 20.

[The crowded state of our columns compel us to greatly abreviate the proceedings of the House to-day.]

Mr. French introduced a resolution, which was adopted, requesting the Supreme Court to give their opinion as to the Constitutionality of the Homestead Exemption.

On motion of Mr. Estes, the rules were suspended, and the resolution authorizing the Treasurer to pay witnesses summoned before the Fraud Committee, was taken up and passed.

Mr. Sinclair's resolution in favor of the Sheriff of Brunswick, was passed under a suspension of the rules.

Mr. Malones resolution inviting Immigration, was taken up, debated, and lies over to be printed.

The Special order, to consolidate the Atlantic and the North Carolina Railroads, was taken up, and a lengthy debate insured, a report of which we have, and will publish at another time. The bill finally passed its second reading, by a vote of 68 yeas, nayes, 37.

House then adjourned.

A correspondent writing from Atlanta, Ga., to the Columbus Enquirer speaks as follows of the new State House of Georgia:

"The full-length portraits of George Washington, "Old Hickory," and other men of renown of a former and a better generation, which formerly hung in the halls at Milledgeville, has each an appropriate place in the new building.

It is truly cheering to see the members from all parts of the State looking so well and cheerful, ready to enter soberly upon the discharge of their duties. From all parts—from the mountains to the seaboard—they bring good tidings from a people ready to go forward in the smooth paths of peace to elevate Georgia once more to her proud position of Empire State of the South."

We can scarcely venture the assertion that there is much of cheer in the Legislative Halls of poor old North Carolina. True, in the House of Representatives, a full length portrait of the immortal Washington overlooks the disorderly crew who have the ship of State in their hands and on more occasions than we can now afford time or space to enumerate, we have almost imagined the old hero's head drooping with shame, at the sad spectacle before him, and the degeneracy of the times!

HOW TO HAVE DISABILITIES REMOVED.

Forney says:

Now, the mere act of asking for anything shows that it is valuable. Those who do not choose to ask for this act of grace either show an entire want of contrition for past offences or a stubborn defiance of the dominant majority, who so gloriously and loyally prosecuted the war to a successful termination. Do such individuals merit any relief from us? Such statesmen as Judge Bingham are ready to support, in the heartiest manner, all proper cases; but the first guarantee which Judge Bingham desires is an application for relief by the party requiring it.

NO DOUBT OF IT.

In the last "Occasional" letter, Forney has the following:

"I hope I do not discredit Congress when I say that I think the Colored Men's Convention, now in session here, contains an average intelligence that makes it no ordinary competitor with the men who deliberate between the marble walls of yonder Capitol."

We haven't the least doubt that "Forney" is right in his estimate of the comparative intelligence of the members of the negro convention and the members of the present radical Congress. Indeed, we doubt very much whether the negroes will consider themselves complimented by the comparison.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., Jan. 18, 1869.

EDITOR SENTINEL:—After a somewhat longer interruption than I had anticipated, I resume my occasional narration of manners and doings in this (as "Dolores" dubs it) modern "Talmor of the wilderness." I am not afraid to adopt this rather disrespectful and contemptuous soubriquet in speaking of my native town, for I have observed that during the past three or four years the people of Fayetteville, (that is, the whites—the old issue,) have grown into such a contempt—good set thereto by their "disloyalty"—for the balance of the United States, that they would rail, with delight, as a direct interposition of a pitying Providence, some grand convulsion which might cut them off in all directions, and leave them to "stand upon their own bottom," solely alone with their "big disgust" of which they refuse to be comforted. And I am prepared to believe that, so far from accepting Mr. Hawkin's direct Railroad line from here to Raleigh, as a boon and a blessing, for which they ought to be grateful, they will regard it as a troublesome interference in their desire to be let alone; and, while the town, en masse, will, doubtless, take a trip to your city—men, women and children—as soon as the last piece of iron is laid, it will not be as those making an ovation or receiving a favor; but, with noses retroussees, they will enter your streets, strong hoping, at every step, their contempt for the State Capital, as it now is, where "rings," and wholesale frauds, and "honorable" thieves, and judicial pilferers do so much abound and so joyfully thrive, basking in the lavish smiles of Mr. Holden's benficent government.—But sore headed as they will be in making this visit, candor compels me to state that they will be much worse if it is returned.—Not that they will be unable to discriminate and extend an open, cordial hand of welcome to the few of you, North Carolinians, who have pride in your town for what it once was, and rhume upon your brows for what it has now become, but for the gentlemen of the costly Penitentiary, the brokers in the needs and sufferings of the people, who have their money-bags in the State Treasury and their offices on Wall Street, who arrive with very little baggage, independent of tracts and collars, and go away with a great deal—for these lusus naturæ they do not get a different treatment. So don't call on neighbors, even if you can almost stand at one end of the Railroad and look to the other, until you find out how we'll take it.

Market Square enjoyed a sensation Saturday morning in witnessing a very vigorous rencontre on Gillespie Street between Maj. W. A. Banks, who has been for two or three years teaching school in this place, and Jno. A. King, a citizen of the town. Banks meeting King, mentioned certain monies due him by said King, and intimated that a speedy liquidation was a sine qua non as to their relations, or in other words, that he (King) must "shell out" on the spot. This demand appeared so monstrous to the debtor that he stood lost in amazement and swallowed up in righteous indignation, and only found words to declare that whoever asked such an unheard of thing as that, was "no gentleman." Banks, thinking that if he could get no "money out of a turnip" he could get blood, grappled with King and used his stick over his head very freely, giving him some severe gashes. Then came police, Mayor's Court, fines, &c. As the two men, "dressed," would weigh somewhere in the neighborhood of four hundred pounds, I think I am justified in calling it a "big fight."

We have some negro policemen. "I must not say how many, but not many." And if you were to pay us a visit, (even after all I have intimated to you above) and were to promenade around Market Square where the gay and festive market women are cooking sausage (?) and beef-lights for the gratification of the fastidious palates of turpentine hands and hungry Africans, you would see two or three rather dirty negroes occasionally walking and very often sitting down, bearing upon their breasts, like a fat pig ticketed at a fair, this mysterious announcement on a gorgeous tin Star with four corners: "T. G." Of course you would then be perfectly easy, and cease to fear robbery, arson or murder. You would say, "see these three robust palladiums of popular liberty, who are now eating some of that cook-woman's sausage!" How beautiful are the workings of our government!" The new Radical Mayor was opposed to negro policemen, but the Board of Commissioners, four whites, three blacks—overruled him and carried the measure. I do not know that there is any need of my giving you the personal of the new Board. The Mayor comes from the lower class, and is quite white and fat. They say "there is no harm in him," and if there is not, a post mortem examination would be quite interesting, to see what there is in him considering that he is so large in the crotch. The best Commissioner is M. N. Leary, Jr., colored, and a brother of John Leary, whom we sent from this county to the Legislature, in a new suit of clothes. These boys hold rather a high position here, because their father, although a black man, owned slaves. I do not say that it has made them proud or stuck up: but still Leary cannot help feeling above the rest of the Commissioners, who are—whites: an illiterate factory hand, a fellow with a negro wife, a drayman; and—blacks: just two ordinary negroes who never owned any of their own flesh and blood.

I am sorry to hear that our other Representative in the Legislature, from this County, Isham K. Sweat, is not popular in your city. I assure you that you do not appreciate Sweat. There is much, much, in him. He was a servant in Co. F., 1st Regiment, at Bethel, and I believe that he held his position there for the same reason that he went to the Legislature, a conviction of duty,—for he was making money. He is a good barber; I have sat under his manipulations, and I know if the bond tricksters up there knew his "shaving" qualities, I think they would employ him very usefully and profitably. Draw him out, draw him out,—you will like him.

I have now to turn from the contemplation of every lighter thing, which may excite ridicule, annoyance and contempt, to the performance of a sad duty to a conscientious journalist—the notice of the death of our prominent and valued public citizen.

Hon. Jesse G. Shepherd died at his residence here last Wednesday morning. Although his health had been feeble for the past year or two, it was only a few months ago that his rapid decline became apparent, and his early decease was looked upon by himself and friends as almost certain. For two or three weeks before his death he was confined to his bed, and his disease caused him much suffering—his last hours being attended with great agony. I am not certain that his physician pronounced his disease consumption; I think it was rather a bronchial affection than a disease of the lungs. In his dying moments he evinced that patience in suffering, resignation at the Divine will, and reliance in the goodness of his Creator, which had rendered his piety a vital, active principle during life, and his religious faith not a formula of words, but a practice of good and useful deeds.

Judge Shepherd was born on the 23d of June, 1801, being nearly 48 years of age at the time of his death. He received his collegiate education at Chapel Hill, where he graduated with distinction, and was considered one of the best classical scholars in the University. Early in life he embraced the profession of law, and for a long time practiced in the courts of the State, with Hon. J. C. Dobbin, Secretary of the Navy, in partnership. The families were connected by closer ties than that of business, Judge Shepherd having at the age of 22 years married a half sister of Hon. J. C. Dobbin.

In 1857 Mr. Shepherd was appointed Superior Court Judge by Gov. Bragg, to fill the vacancy on the Bench occasioned by the death of one of the Judges. He exercised the functions of this high position in a manner worthy of his ability and character, until the close of 1859, when he tendered his resignation, and returned to the practice of law. He was elected to the Legislature in 1856, and again in 1862 and '64, and as Speaker of the House was distinguished for his dignity and grace in presiding over the deliberations of that assembly.

Since the war Judge Shepherd, though eminently a politician in the bent of his mind and talent, had taken little part in politics on account of his bad health, though always keenly sensible of the calamities which had overtaken his State, and ever ready to fulfill, scrupulously, his duties as a good citizen. His retirement, in a great measure, from public life, diverted from him the claims of his party, (Democratic) although, during the past three years, he might have received a nomination for almost any office in the State government. He repeatedly addressed the people in the campaign just passed, and his speeches were full of wisdom, and his counsel full of patriotism.

At the Bar, Judge Shepherd stood high. His legal information and knowledge of law books were extensive, and the readiness with which he would cite authority, in every point of law, was remarkable. He was a very correct and polished speaker, but lacked in animation, and for that reason his strength consisted rather in the making up of a case in Court than his defence of it.

I will close with simply re-echoing the eulogy of him which is on every man's tongue who knew him, as a gentleman.—Deeply religious, his Christian belief was a work of the whole heart and soul. He was a Presbyterian, an influential member, and honored Elder for nearly twenty years; and in the Church, as in the forum, he elevated himself by his merit and his virtue. For such a man to be taken from his enlarged sphere of usefulness is to visit upon his people and his country a loss which must long be felt. I speak not of the affliction of the family, for who shall invade the sanctity of the bereaved household and obtrude upon the grief of those who mourn as the loving and the loved? But his piety was a flower implanted from on high growing daily in the sight of all men, and his purity and integrity rendered his life seemly, and his end perfect. CLIO.

MISCELLANEOUS.

To the People of the Southern States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5, 1868.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago, its proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to imitate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable. Such a preparation, they said, had long been wanted by the profession, as no reliance could be placed on the ordinary liquors of commerce, all of which were more or less adulterated, and therefore unfit for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, which formed one of the principal ingredients of the Schnapps, together with an analyzed character of the alcoholic element, gave it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diffusive stimulant as a diuretic, tonic and restorative.

These satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a connected form, and enclosed with each bottle of the Schnapps, as one of the guarantees of its genuineness. Other precautions against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac simile of the proprietor's autograph signature was attached to each label and cover, his name and that of the preparation were embossed on the bottles, and the corks were sealed with his private seal. No article had ever been sold in this country under the name of schnapps prior to the introduction of Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, in 1851; and the label was deposited, as his trade mark, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York during that year.

It might be supposed by persons unacquainted with the daring character of the parties who prey upon the reputation of honorable merchants by vending deleterious trash under their name, that the protections so carefully thrown around these Schnapps would have prevented the introductions and sale of counterfeits. They seem, however only to have stimulated the tapestry of impostors. The trade mark of the proprietor has been stolen, the name of his invention, the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps alone reserved from the nefarious profanation has been claimed by numerous humbugs; his bitters and bottles have been imitated, his advertisements paraphrased, his circulars copied, and worse than all, dishonorable retailers, after disposing of the genuine contents of his bottles, have filled them up with common gin, the most deleterious of all liquors, and thus made his name and brand a cover for poison.

The public, the medical profession and the sick for whom the schiedam Aromatic Schnapps is prescribed as a remedy, are equally interested with the proprietor in the detection and suppression of these nefarious practices. The genuine article, manufactured at the establishment of the undersigned, in schiedam, Holland, is distilled from a barley of the finest quality, and flavored with an essential extract of the berry of the Italian juniper, of unequaled purity. By a process unknown in the preparation of any other liquor, it is freed from every acrimonious and corrosive element.

Complaints have been received from the leading physicians and families in the Southern States of the sale of cheap imitations of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps in those markets; and travellers, who are in the habit of using it as an antidote to the baneful influence of unwholesome river water, insist that cheap gin, put up in schiedam bottles, is frequently palmed off upon the unwary. The agents of the undersigned have been requested to institute inquiries on the subject, and to forward to him the names of such parties as they may ascertain to be engaged in the atrocious system of deception. In conclusion, the undersigned would say that he has produced, from under the hands of the most distinguished men of science in America, proofs unanswerable of the purity and medicinal excellence of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps; that he has expended many thousand dollars in surrounding it with guarantees and safeguards, which he designed should protect the public and himself against fraudulent imitations; that he has shown it to be the only liquor in the world that can be uniformly depended upon as unadulterated; that he has challenged investigation, analysis, comparison, and experiment in all its forms; and from every ordeal the preparation which bears his name, seal and trademark, has come off triumphant. He therefore feels it a duty he owes to his fellow-citizens generally, to the medical profession and the sick, to denounce and to expose the charlatans who counterfeit these evidences of identity and he calls upon the press and the public to aid him in his efforts to remedy so great an evil.

The following letters and certificates from the leading physicians and chemists of the city will prove to the reader that all goods sold by the undersigned are as they are represented to be.

ADOLPHO WOLFE.

I feel bound to say, that I regard your Schnapps as being in every respect pre-eminently pure, and deserving of medical patronage. At all events, it is the purest possible article of Holland Gin, heretofore manufactured, and, as such, may be safely prescribed by physicians.

The examination has resulted in the conclusion that the sample contained no poisonous or harmful admixture. I have been unable to discover any trace of the deleteris ns substances which are employed in the adulteration of liquors. I would not hesitate to use myself or to rec

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!

AT HOME AGAIN!!

WITH A HOUSE JAMMED AND PACKED FULL OF

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

FOR

1868.

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMPLETE. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade, &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but STOP, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at H. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.
